

Concerts at St Mary's

September
Sunday 16 th 3.00 p.m.	Carey Piano Trio concert with Bernard Brook (violin), Helen Griffiths (cello) and Angela Carey (piano), playing Beethoven and Bridge. Free admission. Followed by tea and cakes. All welcome.
Sunday 16 th 6.30 p.m.	A Service of Choral Evensong – a Prayer Book service lead by St Mary's Church Choir, with music by Brewer and Bruckner. Free admission: collection for church funds.
October
Sunday 7 th 10.30 a.m.	A service of Sung Mattins - with St Mary's Church Choir leading a Prayer Book service. Music by Pitoni, Marchant and Greene. Free admission. Collection for church funds.
Saturday 13 th 7.30 p.m.	Bromley Symphony Players Charity concert in aid of Bromley Youth Music Trust, directed by Bernard Brook. Programme includes a Violin concerto by Vivaldi, and music by Corelli, Handel and Tchaikovsky. Admission on the door £8, children free: interval refreshments
Sunday 21 st 6.30 p.m.	A Service of Choral Evensong – a Prayer Book service lead by St Mary's Church Choir with music by Tye, Wood and Stanford. Free admission. Collection for church funds
November
Sunday 11 th November 6.30 p.m.	"Lest We Forget" a concert to commemorate and celebrate 100 years since the end of the First World War. St Mary's Festival Choir, with trumpet, trombone, organ, soloists and readers, provide an evening of moving words and music, including First World War poets and songs of the period, with Elgar (Nimrod), Parry (Jerusalem), bugle calls and flags. Free admission with retiring collection for St Mary's Lighting Fund.
December
Saturday 1 st at 7.30 p.m.	Christmas Concert by Bromley Youth Chamber Orchestra, with Camerata. Admission on the door £10, with interval refreshments.
Sunday 2 nd 6.30 p.m.	Advent Service of Light : St Mary's Church Choir leads a memorable service that progresses from darkness to light and prepares for Christmas. Free admission: collection for church funds.

Sunday 23 rd at 6.30 p.m.	Traditional service of Nine Lessons and Carols: St Mary's Church Choir leads a service of joy for Christmas, with song and scripture. Free admission. Collection for church funds
Monday 24 th at 11.00 p.m.	Midnight Service: the First Communion of Christmas. St Mary's Church Choir leads half an hour of carol singing before the service. Free admission. Collection for church funds.