

St Mary Bromley Ash Wednesday

The sacrifice of God is a broken spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. Psalm 51.17

The president welcomes the people.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all and also with you.

I invite you, to the observance of a holy Lent by self-examination and repentance; by prayer and study, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy word.

Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal, have mercy upon us.

Let us now call to mind our sin and the infinite mercy of God.

Give us today our daily bread.

And forgive us our sins,

And lead us not into temptation;

but deliver us from evil,

for the Kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread

Responses

This is love, not that we loved God,

but that he loved us and sent his Son.

He is the sacrifice for our sins,

that we might live through him.

If God loves us so much

We ought to love one another.

If we love one another

God lives in us.

The Blessing

Christ give you grace to grow in holiness, to deny yourselves, take up your cross, and follow him; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the name of Christ. Amen.
